Remembrance Sunday

A big thank you and well done goes to Tom and Niamh for reading out all of the names of the war dead on Sunday. They did a very good job on such an important occasion.

A Parent Council Meeting will be held on Friday 8th December

Emergency Services

Thanks to those people from the emergency services who have volunteered to talk to the children during assembly this term. If there are any other volunteers then its not too late to step forward!

Church News

The Worship Council have written prayers which will be read out in the 11:15am service at

St Marys Church
Birchanger

E Safety

Don't forget the e-safety talk on Wednesday at the Joyce Franklin Academy in Newport. The talk runs from 7:00pm -9:00pm and it is an excellent talk given by two ex-police officers. The Year 5 and 6 children will be attending the course earlier in the day.

Assembly change

Our final celebration assembly of the term will be held at 9.05am on 15th December

For some time now Birchanger Nursery has been putting steps in place to change our legal status to a CIO (Charitable Incorporated Organisation). This process has now gone through and will now be known as Birchanger Butterflies Preschool. The name change will have no effect to the day-to-day running of the preschool.

Birchanger Butterflies Preschool Christmas Fair will soon be here.
